Resolved, That the officers of the former great and respected Chief we have to mourn the loss of one whose nobleness of character, whom it is difficult to describe in words, and whose integrity and firmness in the discharge of his duties, made him a true and zealous servant of the public; and that in the hour of danger, true sympathy with the distressed and afflicted, commanded him to the love and regard of every true friend and honest citizen.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing, duly certified, be transmitted to the family of the deceased.

Mr. JAMES KELLY of the Board of Trustees seconded the motion, and made some fitting remarks in regard to the deceased.
